

SIX BARS OF BELL'S BUFFALO SOAP!

FOR 25 CTS.

SAVE THE WRAPPERS FOR PICTURES! WATERMELONS!

Five Indiana Melons down to 10, 15 and 20c this week. Send us your orders.

Wm. W. Wagoner & Co.

91 and 93 West Main St. and 40 South Market St., Springfield, O.

BARGAIN STORES.

91 and 93 West Main St. and 40 South Market St., Springfield, O.

SHIRTS!

All kinds of shirts ready-made and made to order. Bottom Prices.

Hoopes.

The Shirt Maker and Men's Furnisher, No. 5 East Main Street.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

ON AND AFTER TODAY the Springfield Daily Republic will insert "ads" as "Wants," "Lost," "For Rent," "For Sale," etc. In this column one time free, three times for twenty-five cents, and six times for fifty cents. May 23, 1987.

WANTED.

WANTED—Girl to do cooking and general housework. German preferred. Permanent situation. No. 3 North Main Street. 1987.

WANTED.

WANTED—First-class iron molder. No. 1000. Springfield, O. 1987.

WANTED.

WANTED—A horse, a good roadster, young, perfectly sound, suitable for a lady. No horse trader need apply. Call at 230 South Main Street. 1987.

WANTED.

WANTED—Situations by young lady as clerk or copyist. Reference given. Address 230 West Main Street. 1987.

WANTED.

WANTED—Local and canvassing agents in every town and city in the United States to sell corsets and shoulder braces, electro-magnetic spinal supports. Our agents are making $100 per day. Springfield, O. 1987.

WANTED.

WANTED—Ladies to leave their orders with the Springfield Corset Co., southwest corner of Front and Main streets, Springfield, O. 1987.

WANTED.

WANTED—Twenty-five day boarders. Tickets good for twenty-five meals. $3. Men's, $2.50. Ladies, $2.00. No. 1000. Springfield, O. 1987.

WANTED.

WANTED—A reliable man to represent our business in this section. Something permanent. Call at 1000. Springfield, O. 1987.

WANTED.

WANTED—Lady, active and intelligent, to represent in her own locality an old firm. References required. Good salary. E. J. Johnson, Manager, 16 Barclay St., N. Y. 1987.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Counters and fixtures for sale at No. 1000. Springfield, O. 1987.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A very choice lot on John Street, No. 1000. Springfield, O. 1987.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A very choice lot on John Street, No. 1000. Springfield, O. 1987.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A very choice lot on John Street, No. 1000. Springfield, O. 1987.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A very choice lot on John Street, No. 1000. Springfield, O. 1987.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A very choice lot on John Street, No. 1000. Springfield, O. 1987.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A very choice lot on John Street, No. 1000. Springfield, O. 1987.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A very choice lot on John Street, No. 1000. Springfield, O. 1987.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A very choice lot on John Street, No. 1000. Springfield, O. 1987.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A very choice lot on John Street, No. 1000. Springfield, O. 1987.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A very choice lot on John Street, No. 1000. Springfield, O. 1987.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A very choice lot on John Street, No. 1000. Springfield, O. 1987.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A very choice lot on John Street, No. 1000. Springfield, O. 1987.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A very choice lot on John Street, No. 1000. Springfield, O. 1987.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A very choice lot on John Street, No. 1000. Springfield, O. 1987.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A very choice lot on John Street, No. 1000. Springfield, O. 1987.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A very choice lot on John Street, No. 1000. Springfield, O. 1987.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A very choice lot on John Street, No. 1000. Springfield, O. 1987.

CASPER'S SUPERIOR SEALING WAX!

Best and Cheapest

CASPER'S Drug Store, Fishers' Block, Main Street, 3d floor West of Limestone, Springfield, O.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

Mr. Will S. Huffman arrived at Lincoln, Neb., this morning.

Mr. Smith Sullivan and Mr. Ed Wren are spending the day in the country.

There are to be several more excursions to Niagara Falls and people want to go.

Miss Lou Shroufe, of west Jefferson street, is visiting friends at Yellow Springs this week.

Mr. Wm. Moorman, of 33 west Jefferson street, left for Yellow Springs today, to visit friends.

Mr. L. L. King, of Hancock county, is in the city, the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Q. King.

Mr. M. D. Levy, the old reliable clothier, left last night to buy his new goods for the coming fall and winter.

Mrs. C. A. Smith, of south Mechanic street, went to Urbana this morning to attend a card meeting.

Mr. T. A. Wick, who has been quite ill, is much improved and will soon be at his place of business again.

Among the arrivals at the Hygeia hotel, a Old Point Comfort on Tuesday last was Miss Anna Foss of this city.

Mrs. M. M. Knipping, of 33 South Market street, will visit friends at Dayton on Saturday and Sunday next.

Mrs. John Poundstone and son, Ramsey, of Richmond, Ind., are visiting Mrs. Harry Burleigh, south Limestone street.

A large excursion passed through from Sandusky to Dayton last night. Another section went through this morning.

The handsome new King building on Market street is expected to be under roof by next week, weather permitting.

T. M. Guenzel will take a short trip to the lakes in a few days. He goes for his health and will be gone about ten days.

J. R. Fellows & Son are receiving their stock of fall and winter suitings and are busy preparing for a large trade the coming season.

Dr. L. H. Baldwin, of Yellow Springs, and one of the proprietors of the new democratic paper in Xenia, was in town this morning.

The Band of Hope will give an entertainment at Temperance hall next Tuesday, the object being to raise money to pay off the debt on the hall.

Several car loads of people from points all along the L. B. & W. Ohio division, are passing through to see "Home Under the Sun."

Misses Carrie Meranda and Ella Hamilton, of New Carlisle, were in the city for a short time yesterday on their way to the Urbana camp-meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf, of Springfield, who have been visiting at the residence of Thomas M. Aspinall, returned home yesterday afternoon. —Piquette Call.

The Cadet band of Springfield, who were in the city yesterday, furnished some excellent music. Though young in years the cadets are away up in music. —Piquette Call.

Joseph D. Miller, pension attorney, has been very sick at his residence, on Race street, but is getting better, and hopes to be able to attend to business again in a few days.

Dr. Myers moved from Domesville to Springfield, Dr. Deam, formerly of Brant, took his place at Domesville, Dr. Gilbert, of New Carlisle, moved to Brant.

The Champaign county fair will be held the week of September 6. Whatever may be the merits of the exhibition, it is always a picnic to the young men of Springfield to go there.

Bertha, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Yates, who reside three miles east of New Moorehead, died on Thursday of cholera infantum. The funeral occurred at 1 o'clock this (Friday) afternoon. Interment at Ferncliff.

Miss Lula Cousins was made the recipient of a handsome Cottage organ, this afternoon, by her mother, Mrs. Mary Cousins, of Winter street. Miss Lula was kept in ignorance of her mother's intentions till the organ was placed in the parlor.

Division 44, U. R. K. of P., had completed arrangements last night to give Sir Knight Joseph Merrill, who was married Wednesday evening, a nice serenade. But Mr. Merrill was quite ill and when the knights heard of it the serenade was temporarily abandoned.

FULL WEIGHT PURE

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

MOST PERFECT MADE

Used by the United States Government. Endorsed by the heads of the great universities as the strongest, purest, and most healthful of all baking powders.

Dr. Frank C. Runyan, DENTIST.

Dr. Frank C. Runyan, DENTIST.

Dr. Frank C. Runyan, DENTIST.

Dr. Frank C. Runyan, DENTIST.

Dr. Frank C. Runyan, DENTIST.

Dr. Frank C. Runyan, DENTIST.

Real Estate Transfers.

E. E. McNally to Theodore Dohy, lot in Edwardsville, $1500.

Theodore Dohy to Nicholas G. Moritz, lot in Edwardsville, $1425.00.

William C. Marshall to Lem E. Marshall, property on Liberty street, $2,000.

Adelaide M. DeLong to Patrick Fitzsimmons, lot on west High street, $475.

Randolph Moore to Wm. K. Mumford, 81 acres land in Pike township, $4,500.

J. D. Moler to Charles Paynter, lot in McCright heirs' addition, $900.

W. K. Duke to Edith Johnson, lot in East Springfield, $500.

Sarah D. Bechtel to Mary F. Bechtel, lot in S. D. Bechtel's subdivision, $400.

John Burke to Sarah Pearson, one acre of land in Harmony tp., $300.

Peter Peters to Charles Warfield, one-half acre of land in Springfield, $2,300.

Wm. Miller to Henry H. Baker, 5.5-100 acres of land in German tp., $650.

Wm. Miller to Matthew Baker, 5.5-100 acres of land in German tp., $2,300.

Kate A. Hall to Ed Wilkinson, lot in Dolly Varden, $20.

Mary F. Bechtel to Sarah D. Bechtel, quit-claims to lands in city and Springfield, $1,400.

John S. Layton to Philip Markley, 117 acres land in Harmony township, $6,500.

Seymour Harold to Darwin Pierce, quit-claims to land in Madison township, $1.

Margaret Pringle et al. to Thomas Howard et al., 25 10-100 acres land in Madison township, $1.

W. L. Houston to Emma C. Yezell, lands in Champaign and Clark counties, $1.

W. L. Houston to F. B. Houston et al., lands in Champaign and Clark counties, $1.

I. H. Houston et al. to B. F. Houston et al., lands in Champaign and Clark counties, $1.

FOR NINETY DAYS.

Jim Hill Gets This Dose for Stealing a Dose of Drugs.

Jim Hill had his trial this afternoon in Judge Young's court for the larceny of drugs, etc., from Frank Coblenz's drug store recently. He pleaded guilty to both charges in hopes of getting out of a tight place in trying his case, for it went as follows:

"Jim Hill" called the judge.

"Here," and Jim walked out of the pen, smiling.

"I understand you wish to plead guilty to both charges," said the judge.

"Yes, sir," and Jim looked up anxiously.

"Jim," the Dayton work-house is nearly full, but there is room for one more. You will pay a fine of $10 and go to the work-house for ninety days."

Jim was crushed and Major Tynner will not relish it, as Jim was a good bill poster and worked faithfully for him.

DEATH CLAIMED HERE.

Mrs. Nellie Ott Dies at Her Home in Mechanicsburg, Pa.

The sad news of the death of Mrs. Nellie Ott, wife of the Rev. Melancthon Ott, of Mechanicsburg, Pa., was received here this morning.

She died last night of a complication of diseases. She was about fifty-two years of age and was a most excellent and lovable woman.

She was a sister of Mr. Charles E. Crocker and Mrs. Robert C. Woodward, of this city, and formerly resided here herself. Her husband, Rev. Melancthon Ott, is a brother of Dr. S. A. Ott, president of Wittenberg college.

The remains of Mrs. Ott will be brought to Springfield for interment and will arrive tomorrow (Saturday) morning at 6:55 o'clock. The funeral will occur some time on Sunday at the residence of Mr. Charles E. Crocker, No. 103 north Plum street. Definite announcement will be made tomorrow.

Arrested for Burglary.

Christ, Sullivan, colored, Mrs. James Richardson's second son, entered John Bucher's house through a window, Tuesday, at New Carlisle, and stole a quantity of watches, which he damaged and traded off.

He was suspected and arrested and put in the lockup, until Thursday morning, when he was left out on two hundred dollars bail. This is not his first attempt at larceny. A year ago he entered the Kient residence and stole a small clock, some jewelry and other articles. He was at 11 o'clock suspected but nothing could be substantiated. He was confined here, however, the dead, stating that the clock was buried in a manure pile and afterwards thrown in the creek.

Low Law Collections.

Auditor Serviss has just completed the following statement of low law collections under the August settlement with the county treasurer:

Rapid Rifle Shooting.

"Shooting at the word is the first practice. It trains the eye and the hand to work together and gets the forefinger into the habit of pressing the trigger at just the right moment. Grasp the rifle in the Kentucky manner or in the Carver's style, holding the butt just below the elbow, and keep the eye fixed upon the mark. If you can shoot with both eyes open so much the better. At the word 'Fire' bring the butt to the shoulder quickly and raise the barrel until the sights are in line with the mark, pressing the trigger as soon as you see them in line. You must shoot after the word 'Fire' and before the counter finishes counting three like the tick of a clock. With practice the rifle will come into position instantly, the eye will telegraph to the forefinger that the aim is right and the finger will press the trigger unhesitatingly. Men who practice this style of shooting can do more accurate work at the word than in taking deliberate aim, and they will tire when the counter says 'One.'"

"Another good plan is to take a repeating rifle—a Winchester, for example—and try to put as many shots as possible into the target rapidly as the gun can be fired. Try for accuracy first and rapidly by degrees. It is well to vary the mark and not shoot at a round black bull's eye.

Men who practice this style of shooting can do more accurate work at the word than in taking deliberate aim, and they will tire when the counter says 'One.'"

"A gentleman from Philadelphia sent me some matter return herewith, last summer. I probably left the paper at home, but do not know for certain. All there is of importance in the matter of Vicksburg is contained in the correspondence between Gen. Pemberton and myself. The fact is, Gen. Pemberton, being a northern man commanding a southern army, was not at the same liberty to surrender an army that a man of southern birth would be. In adversity or defeat he became an object of suspicion, and felt it. Bowen was a southern man all over, and knew the garrison of Vicksburg had to surrender or be captured, and knew it was best to stop further effort, battered by the national troops were then to march in and occupy the city, and retain the siege guns, small arms not in the hands of the men, all public property, etc. Of course, he rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reasoning of the case. Of course, they rejected the terms at once. I did agree, however, before we separated to write Pemberton what terms I would give, were the case a matter of public and personal honor. I held no council of war